Family Medical Leave Act

• FMLA applies to all public agencies

• All counties with 50 or more employees employed within 75 miles of the workplace must grant FMLA to eligible employees

Seasonal and temporary employees count towards the 50, but not elected officials!
How FMLA Helps Employees

✓ It allows them to take off for family and medical issues
✓ It provides benefits without interruption
✓ It “guarantees” reinstatement to the same or equivalent job

FMLA Eligibility

Employee has worked for county for at least 12 months
• Break >7 years not counted unless military call up
• >3 years burden on employee

& Has worked at least 1250 hours during the last 12 months prior to FMLA Leave
• Part-timers and long-term temps might qualify

& All time lost due to military service is counted as time worked

What is FMLA?

FMLA = Leave Entitlement

• Can be paid leave but the law does not require it to be paid.
• County policy dictates when to pay FMLA.

TIP—Require in policy use of all paid time off to be used under FMLA
Paid or Unpaid FMLA?

FMLA allows for substitution of paid leave for unpaid leave including:

- Vacation, personal or sick leave
- Compensatory Time Off
- Short Term Disability Leave
- Workers’ Compensation Leave

FMLA Allows 12 Weeks Leave For

- A newly born, adopted or foster-placed child
- A spouse, child or parent with a serious health condition
- The employee’s own serious health condition

Serious Health Condition – Definition

- Overnight Stay in Hospital
- Lasts for > 3 full days
- 1 visit to health care provider within first 7 days and a regimen of continuing treatment (prescription)
- 2 visits to health care provider within first 30 days of incapacity
- Chronic, serious health condition (2 visits/year)
- Physical or Mental Health Issues
- Pregnancy or Prenatal
Military Qualifying Exigency Leave

Qualified employee can receive 12 weeks of leave in a 12 month period for:

- Spouse, child or parent of the employee is being deployed to a foreign country.
- Reserves National Guard Regular Armed Forces

Does not extend FMLA 12 weeks.

Military Qualifying Exigency Leave

Defined as...

- Short term notice of deployment
- Military events and related activities
- Childcare and school activities
- Financial and legal arrangements
- Counseling
- Rest and recuperation expanded to 15 days in 2013
- Post deployment activities (during first 90 days home)
- Any additional agreed upon activities

Military Qualifying Exigency Leave

- Leave to care for military members parent
- Arranging for alternative care
- Attending meetings with staff at care facility
- Can require copy of military members rest and recuperation leave orders or other military documentation
Intermittent FMLA

May be taken when medically necessary to care for a seriously ill family member or because of the employee’s own serious health condition.
(usually chronic conditions)

Intermittent Leave

May be taken to care for a newborn, newly adopted or newly placed foster child with county approval.

Medical Certifications

- County may require (give employees 15 days to obtain)
- Can only require intermittent leave recertification every 6 months
- Include a copy of the job description or essential functions on or before the designation notice is
- Privacy requirements must be met
- Supervisor is never allowed to contact the physician to clarify the information provided
Employer Notification

- Post the notice approved by the Secretary of Labor – Applicants must have access
- Include information about employee rights in handbook
- Must provide written notice designating leave as FMLA

Other FMLA Information

- Poster must be posted where all employees and all applicants have access, $110 fine for failure to do so.
- Needed to care for a family member with a serious health condition does not require that the employee be the only person available to provide the care – care does include “psychological care”

FMLA and Benefits

- Insurance premiums must continue to be paid
- Employees are entitled to any new benefits
- Changes of benefits notices must also be provided to employees on FMLA
- If employee chooses not to continue benefits while on leave, they must immediately be reinstated upon return
If FMLA is Exhausted, What Next?

- Have a policy in place to offer employees COBRA at the end of their 12 weeks
- Review the employee’s status and condition
- Begin the interactive process to determine and DOCUMENT your actions. Not every leave under the FMLA will have the ADAAA protection but evaluation is important.

Tips Going Forward

- Forced Use Allowed
  - Letter Ruling FMLA-68
  - Letter Ruling Problem

What now?

- Don’t interfere with an employees rights to FMLA/MFL
- Don’t retaliate against any employee for taking or asking for FMLA/MFL
- Remember as a supervisor – if you violate an employee’s rights under the FMLA, you may be personally liable.
- Make certain your FMLA/MFLA policies are up to date
What now?

✓ Make certain you use the new FMLA/MFL forms
✓ Make certain you have the new FMLA/MFL posters up and available to all employees and applicants
✓ Make sure all supervisors in your county understands the changes to the FMLA/MFL
