APPLICATION FOR EMERGENCY DETENTION

I, Jane Doe [undersigned applicant], have reason to believe and do believe that John Doe [name of person] evidences mental illness and a substantial risk of serious harm to himself/herself and others. The harm is as follows:

He might kill himself.

I have reason to believe and do believe that the risk of harm is imminent unless the person is immediately restrained. My beliefs are derived from specific recent behavior, overt acts, attempts, or threats described as follows:

For the past 6 months, he's been depressed. His girlfriend found a journal with suicidal thoughts in it. He might have a drug problem.

My relationship with the person is as follows: I'm his mother

Other relevant information: John's 23 and has a live-in girlfriend.

I therefore request the magistrate to issue a warrant for emergency detention under Texas Health and Safety Code chapter 573.012 of the above-named person.
